

WageIndicator

BRAZIL GIG ECONOMY OVERVIEW 2024

© WageIndicator 2024

PLATFORM RATINGS

As of Fairwork Brazil's 2023 report, AppJusto received the highest score of 3 for fair pay, fair contracts and fair management.

No platform received a score for fair conditions or for fair representation.

DID YOU KNOW?

991 MILLION iFood generated more than USD 991 million last fiscal year (Prosus).

14 BILLION Uber has transferred more than USD 14 billion to partner drivers during its entire time in Brazil (2014-2021).

1.7 MILLION There are more than 1.7 million self-employed in the transport sector.

23% Only 23% of the self-employed in the transport sector are covered by social security. This compares to 40% in 2016.

LOGISTICS & MOBILITY REGULATION

The Ministries of Finance, Labour and Social Security discussed a proposal that would offer all gig workers more transparency and fair negotiations with companies.

THE FEDERAL SUPREME COURT (STF) RULING

In December 2023, the Court ruled that transport platforms do not have to recognise their employment relationship with drivers, allowing them greater flexibility on labour rights.