COMPANIES

Uber expects that by 2028, almost all rides made via the app will be emission-free.

Flash delivery platforms are on the ropes. Flink and Getir are still hanging on, but the money is drying up.

Regulators fined Uber 10 million euros ($10.8 million) for a lack of transparency in how it handles drivers' personal data.

WORKERS RIGHTS

March 2023 - Deliveroo v. FNV: The agreements between Deliveroo and its couriers qualify as employment contracts.

Uber and Bolt had promised to keep the driver commissions higher, but they have now decreased, leaving gig workers with low incomes.
